Funeral services at Champion Forest Baptist Church

Funeral services are designed to meet the needs of the family and every attempt is made to accommodate the family's requests.

If one of our CFBC Pastor(s) will be officiating the funeral, then that Pastor will meet or speak with the family to review the following:

- Funeral date: Is the funeral date agreeable to the church, family and the funeral home?
- Order of service
- Location of funeral service
- Burial/Cemetery – Name and address of cemetery
- Family Requests/Needs
- Special guests/speakers
- Easel and/or table(s) for picture(s)
- Special sound request – played on a USB flash drive (in MP4 or .MOV formats)
- If a member of a CFBC Life Group, then the name of the LG teacher
- Serving ministries - (did the deceased or any family members serve at CFBC as an usher, hospitality/greeter, missions, choir/orchestra, sound/media, etc...)
- Family Reception needs/requests
- Whether the family has considered the option of having the graveside service prior to the funeral/memorial service

_____ Please note that a funeral/memorial service is regarded as a worship experience of Champion Forest Baptist Church. We are happy to provide the Chapel for 1 hour. No fees of any kind will be charged for the use of the church facilities or its personnel for funeral/memorial services for CFBC members.

_____The church will not cancel any major events (weddings, conferences, workshops, etc.) to accommodate a funeral service. Weekdays are very flexible with the exception of Wednesday evenings and Friday afternoons.

_____Viewings/Visitations the day or night prior to a funeral service will be scheduled at the church ONLY if the funeral home cannot accommodate the number of attendants.

_____Please notify your florist to make all deliveries 2-3 hours prior to a funeral/memorial service in our Champion Forest Chapel. Please be advised that CFBC is unable to store floral arrangements overnight.

_____CFBC is happy to provide a comfortable space (80-100 max) for a luncheon/reception for your family and special guests following a funeral/memorial/graveside service. You are welcome to have your meal catered professionally and/or allow family, friends, Life Group members, etc...to deliver their food items to room FL102 one hour prior to the funeral service start time. (Please have all utensils and serving dishes clearly labeled)

_____Video presentations are always a sweet remembrance to be shown just before or during the funeral, however, please be advised that it must be submitted to the Media Ministry 24 hours prior to the funeral service for review. All presentations should be in video format on a USB flash drive. (.mov or .mp4 are the best file formats NOT Power Point) and should not exceed five minutes in length.

_____If you are planning to include both a graveside service and also a reception, you may want to consider having the graveside service prior to the funeral service. The time required to travel from CFBC to the graveside and back to the church for a reception has grown significantly due to an increase in traffic in northwest Houston. Choosing to have a graveside service before the funeral/memorial service allows for a smooth flow and transition into the reception and/or receiving line for guests wishing to express their condolences immediately following the funeral/memorial service. It also provides a wonderful opportunity for family and close friends to have an intimate time of remembrance together at the graveside prior to your loved one being laid to rest. (Please be advised that this is simply an option and by no means required...we want you to be comfortable in your choice of what best meets the needs of your family)

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's)

1. What is the difference between a funeral and a memorial service?

Funeral services typically occur within the week (3-7days) of your loved one's passing, a funeral home is heavily involved in the handling of details surrounding your loved one's body, flowers, visitation, guest book, honorariums, burial, etc... Our CFBC Care and Counseling Ministry is here to answer your questions and possible concerns regarding the service and reception. A CFBC Hostess is also provided to assist in greeting and giving direction to all family members and guests while present on the CFBC campus.

Memorial Services occur at a time that is best for the surviving loved ones. There is no casket; however, the family may still opt for the services of a funeral home to assist in the handling and delivering of ashes, flowers, honorariums, etc... In the absence of a casket, a family may opt to have pictures and treasured memorabilia of their loved one displayed. Your assigned or personally chosen CFBC Pastor and our Care and Counseling Ministry will be available to answer your questions regarding the service and reception. A CFBC Hostess is also provided to assist in greeting and giving direction to all family members and guests while present on the CFBC campus.

2. What if my choice of a CFBC pastor is not available to officiate my loved one's funeral?

Should this occur, the Care and Counseling Ministry will provide a CFBC pastor who will help make your loved one's funeral meaningful and special.

3. Can a pastor from another church and/or denomination officiate my loved one's funeral?

All licensed pastors (apart from CFBC ordained ministers), regardless of denomination, must be approved by Pastor Eduardo Salazar, Pastor of Care and Counseling. Please submit your request to the Care and Counseling Office via Rosie Bailes at 281-440-3800 ext.6760 or email rbbailes@cfbc.org.

5. What is the customary honorarium for those who help with your loved one's funeral?

Please know that it is never expected, but always appreciated when families wish to show their gratitude to individuals who will serve at the family's request. 6. Is it okay to have family members/friends speak at the funeral?

Not only is it appropriate, but here at CFBC we encourage a family member(s) and/or a close friend(s) to share personal remembrances during the funeral or memorial service. Their remarks will create a more meaningful and memorable touch to the service. Our staff will be happy to give guidance on timing and a suitable place for this to occur during the service.

7. Can CFBC record the funeral/memorial service?

CFBC provides a digital audio/visual recording for funeral/memorial services via an online link. You are welcome to have your own videographer to record if you so wish. Please let us know in advance so that the media team can show them where they can setup.

8. Does CFBC provide food for the reception?

CFBC does not provide food for the reception. The church provides coffee, tea, and chilled water per your request. We are also happy to make sure both serving tables and dining tables with chairs are set up prior to the luncheon/reception. Our Funeral Coordinator and Hostesses will also be present to receive caterers, food from Life Group and/or family members and friends.
