

DM

Devotional Moment

READ Colossians 3:20

"Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord."

Do you obey your parents? Do you obey them when they are not around? The Lord asks us to obey our parents in Colossians and one of the 10 commandments even says to honor your mother and father. Why? Because it pleases the Lord. There are rules in our lives for reasons. Sometimes we don't always understand why, but we are to trust our parents and trust the Lord. Rules are not there to make our lives miserable or cause more problems for you, but they are there to keep us safe, give us abundance in life and the best that the Lord has for us. Obey your parents today and see how your relationship with them begins to grow and how your relationship with the Lord grows.

PRAY

Lord, help me to obey by parents. I know that it pleases You. Help me to obey them even when they are not watching.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

----- Cut here and bring signed portion to WoW next week for a prize -----

Child's Name _____ Grade/Age _____

My child has completed his/her DM for the week of Oct. 10, 2018.

Parent Signature

UNIT VERSE for KIDS MIN. at CFBC

"Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor."
Romans 12:10

Obey Your Parents

